

VOLUNTEERING – HOW YOU CAN HELP

Temple Sinai Women of Reform Judaism — “TSWRJ” — plays a vital role in fostering the well-being of the Temple Sinai community. In doing so, TSWRJ depends on the critical support of volunteers to assure the success of its undertakings. Below is a description of the categories of volunteering that assure the success of TSWRJ activities. Please check the items that interest you.

- Help staff an event such as the Authors’ Roundtable or the Chanukah Mart;
- Help before, but not at, an event, such as tabulating reservations, shopping, contacting other volunteers – generally allows more flexibility for the volunteer;
- Volunteer for recurring events, such as staffing post-Bar and Bat Mitzvah luncheons;
- Volunteer to donate baked goods for the Chanukah Mart or to prepare food for dinners provided to the Children’s Inn;
- Volunteer to co-chair planned TSWRJ events or to propose and facilitate new programs to be undertaken by TSWRJ.
