Person”), against expenses (including attorney’s fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement (if approved by the Board in advance) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he/she reasonably believed that he/she was acting in, or was not opposed to, the best interests of the Congregation and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in a manner that he/she reasonably believed that he/she was acting in or was not opposed to the best interests of the Congregation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his/her conduct was unlawful. To the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction holds that the standard for indemnification provided in this Section 1 is not authorized under the laws of the District of Columbia then in effect, the Congregation shall indemnify the Required Indemnified Persons to the full extent permitted by applicable law in effect at such time.

Section 2. To the full extent permitted by law, the Congregation may indemnify any person who is, or who is threatened to be made, a party to any action, suit or proceeding, because he or she is or was an employee, professional staff member, Rabbi, Cantor, or agent of the Congregation (each, a “Permitted Indemnified Person”), against expenses (including attorney’s fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement (if approved by the Board in advance) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he/she reasonably believed that he/she was acting in, or was not opposed to, the best interests of the Congregation and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in a manner that he/she reasonably believed that he/she was acting in or was not opposed to the best interests of the Congregation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his/her conduct was unlawful. To the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction holds that the standard for indemnification provided in this Section 2 is not authorized under the laws of the District of Columbia then in effect, the Congregation may indemnify the Permitted Indemnified Persons to the full extent permitted by applicable law in effect at such time.

Section 3. Any indemnification of a Permitted Indemnified Person under Section 2 of this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Congregation only as authorized in the specific case, upon the determination that indemnification of the person is proper in the circumstances because he/she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1. Such determination shall be made: (1) by the Board by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Trustees who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding or, if no quorum can be reached, (2) by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Congregation present, excluding those who are parties to the action, at a duly constituted meeting.

Section 4. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Congregation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking (with sufficient security, if required) by or on behalf of the indemnified person to repay such if it shall ultimately be determined that he/she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Congregation as authorized in this Bylaw provision.

Section 5. The Congregation shall purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of the Congregation and the Required Indemnified Persons and may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of the Permitted Indemnified Persons.

Section 6. All rights to indemnification under Section 1 of this Article XV shall be deemed to be a contract between the Congregation and each Required Indemnified Person who serves or served in such capacity at any time while Section 1 of this Article XV is in effect. Any repeal or modification of this Article XV or any repeal or modification of any relevant provisions of the laws of the District of Columbia or any other applicable law shall not in any way diminish any rights to indemnification of any Required Indemnified Person or the obligation of the Congregation arising prior to such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE XVI DISSOLUTION OR MERGER

Section 1. In the event of the dissolution or merger of the Congregation, no officer, Trustee, Clergy, Professional Staff Member, Director, employee, agent or representative of the Congregation shall be entitled to any distribution or division of its remaining property, assets or proceeds. The balance of all money and other assets or property owned, held, or received by the congregation from any source, after the payment of all debts and obligations of the Congregation, shall be used exclusively for exempt purposes within the intention and purpose of the Internal Revenue Code as it now exists or may be amended from time to time, or it shall be distributed to an organization or organizations exempt under the Internal Revenue Code. Moreover, any such use or distribution of the money or property of the Congregation shall, to the extent possible, be in accord with the Congregation's purpose as set forth above, and, to the extent possible, shall promote similar or related purposes.
