

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Temple Sinai has a long and rich tradition of tzedakah, or charitable giving. Your generosity, large and small, provides for Temple Sinai—sustaining programs for members, supporting the clergy’s work in the community, and various social action programs. When making a gift, all checks should be made out to Temple Sinai (unless otherwise noted), and contributions will be applied to current year activities and programs. We will send you a letter acknowledging and commemorating your gift.

Please mail this form together with your donation to Temple Sinai, Attention Development Office, 3100 Military Road, NW, Washington, DC 20015.

PLEASE PRINT:

Name of Contributor(s): _____

Telephone # _____ Email _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

In Honor of/ In Memory of/ In Appreciation of: _____

Send acknowledgement to: _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Donation to the Following Program(s): _____

Annual Campaign – Provides general operating support across all temple activities throughout the year.

Art – Purchases and/or installs art works used to decorate, furnish, or exhibit at Temple Sinai, and to undertake art programming.

Benjamin Goldstein Adult Education – Provides for adult education activities at Temple Sinai.

Bernstein Religious School Endowment – Provides an endowment for the Temple Sinai Religious School to support current curriculum and build for the future of the Religious School.

Discretionary Funds – Rabbi Roos’ Fund; Rabbi Rosenwasser’s Fund; Rabbi Goldstein’s Fund; Cantor Croen’s Fund; Cantor Robins’ Fund; Cantorial Soloist Robyn Helzner’s Fund– Provides for charitable, programmatic, and educational needs as determined by each member of the ritual staff . (Checks should be made out to the fund of your choice.)

Dollars for Israel – Provides for temple programming about Israel and support for Reform and Progressive causes in Israel. The programming and allocation of funds is coordinated by our Israel Committee in consultation with the Clergy.

Endowment – Provides income in perpetuity for the temple’s operations.

Harris Jewish History – Provides funds for archival support and educational programming on Jewish historical subjects.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES (CONTINUED)

Israel and Camp Scholarships – Provides for scholarships for summer programs in Israel and Jewish summer camps. It also funds the temple's match of Israel Quest / Camper Quest grants sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington.

SinaiCares – Provides for the activities of SinaiCares, a program designed to provide services and support for members in our community most in need.

Library – Provides for the purchase of books, subscriptions, and other materials for the library.

Memorial Contributions – Donations to honor the memory of the deceased, amounts raised support temple operations.

Music – Provides support for enhanced music programs and activities.

Nursery School – Provides support for Temple Sinai Nursery School activities.

Prayer Books & Ritual Objects – Provides support for the purchase of new prayer books and ritual objects and for their repair and maintenance.

Project Mensch – Provides for Temple Sinai's social action partnership with the Wheatley Education Campus by providing basic items needed to enrich the education provided to low-income children at this DC public school.

Rabbi Eugene Lipman Social Action and Tzedakah Fund – Provides for programs and activities that engage the congregation in social justice work, support the needy, or support other organizations working on issues of social justice and aid for the needy.

Rabbi Fred N. Reiner Lifelong Learning – Provides for intergenerational education programs and activities for all ages.

Religious School – Provides for the activities of the Religious School including tuition scholarships.

Simcha Leaves – Share family simchas by inscribing a permanent leaf to the carved wood Simcha Tree displayed in the foyer. Contributions are directed to temple operations.

Sinai Assisted Housing Foundation (Sinai House) – Provides for the 4-unit transitional housing facility which assists formerly homeless families become independent, stable and financially self-sufficient by providing them with housing, support and social services in a nurturing environment. (Checks should be made out to Sinai House.)

Yahrzeit Plaques – To memorialize the death of a loved one in perpetuity, a brass plaque is purchased. Each year, the plaque is displayed at the time of yahrzeit on a wall in the main lobby.

Youth – Provides scholarships for youth activities, including attending URJ regional and national programs, and support for youth-focused programs at the temple.

Zwerdling Memorial Lecture – Provides for the annual Zwerdling Memorial Program for Social Justice.

Thank you for considering a generous contribution to Temple Sinai.

For more information about any of these giving opportunities, to find out more information about the Rimonim Society, Temple Sinai's planned giving society for individuals who have named Temple Sinai as a beneficiary in their charitable estate plans or another financial vehicle, or to learn about other ways to give to Temple Sinai; please contact Noah Benjamin, Development Coordinator at 202-363-6396 ext. 234 or email nbenjamin@templesinaidc.org.