HAGGADOT. The Library has multiple copies of Haggadot you can borrow for your Seder (see below for links to some of the most popular ones). For online and downloadable Haggadot see PJ Library, the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism, ReformJudaism.org and more. There are hard copy and online options for all ages and interests! Make a personalized haggadah with the resources available at haggadot.com.

Please contact Librarian Ruth Polk if you'd like to borrow books, a book bundle, or multiple copies of Haggadot. Contactless pick-ups are on Monday through Friday, 9 to 4.

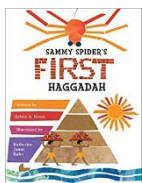

The Library has multiple copies of these and other Haggadot:

The “Baskin Haggadah”

A Passover Haggadah. This classic Reform Haggadah contains a complete Passover home service, an extensive song section, and supplemental readings and meditations, with beautiful illustrations by Leonard Baskin.

Children's Haggadot

Sammy Spider's First Haggadah. Sammy leads young children through the steps of the Passover seder, telling the story of the Exodus, asking and answering the Four Questions, and sampling the traditional foods. This book includes creative readings and songs, as well as colorful paper collage art and is recommended for children ages 4 to 6.

A Children's Haggadah. Through special foods, prayers and songs, children come to an understanding of the miraculous event that is the Exodus. Includes art on every page and a vibrant accordion fold-out of the seder plate.

My Very Own Haggadah. A first seder for very young children.

Family Haggadot

A Night of Questions. A unique four-in-one Reconstructionist Haggadah that includes outlines for customizing a Seder for the people present at the table. The four menus include a Seder for young children, a Seder for older children with adults, a Seder for groups of diverse backgrounds, and a Seder focusing on the role of women.

A Family Haggadah II (1997). A shortened version of the traditional Haggadah. It includes new commentaries and discussion questions from traditional contemporary sources.

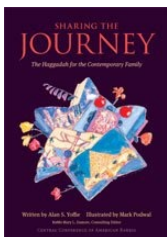

Social justice focused

The Open Door: A Passover Haggadah. This Haggadah includes traditional and innovative blessings, extensive commentaries and supplemental readings, contemporary additions like Miriam's Cup, women's and men's voices in gender-inclusive language, more than 40 pages of traditional, specially-commissioned music, and full-color art.

A Common Road to Freedom. This Haggadah celebrates the commonality between redemption of ancient Israel from Egypt and the ongoing struggle for equality and civil rights among African Americans. It is easily reproduced for a home seder, or sections that apply to modern times can be added in to the Haggadah a family might already use. Published by the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism.

Sharing the Journey: The Haggadah for the Contemporary Family. The inclusive text, commentary, and magnificent original artwork in this new Haggadah will make all family members and friends feel welcome at your Seder, with inspiring readings on the themes of justice and freedom for all.
